

Decolonization

We believe that decolonization is one of the most important things we must do in order to make our community more equitable and just. Decolonization is about unlearning beliefs, values, and ideologies that have caused harm through colonization. It's about confronting racists and oppressive systems that uphold the harmful tenets of white supremacy and shifting power structures to ensure that marginalized communities thrive.

JEDI

JUSTICE, EQUITY,
DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

UNIVERSITY of MARYLAND
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

ssw.umaryland.edu/dao