DUAL DEGREES

The University of Maryland, School of Social Work offers several dual degree programs for students interested in pursuing an MSW and one of the following graduate degrees: Masters of Business Administration, Juris Doctor, Public Health or Jewish Studies and Public Policy. In order to complete one of our dual degree programs the applicant must apply to both schools and be accepted to each program separately. Depending on the program, it can take 3 to 4 years to earn both degrees as a full time student. Please find the contact information for the representatives of the dual degree programs below.
