We believe that a sense of belonging is important to making our community a space of self-expression and discovery. It means cultivating a feeling of acceptance, safety, and support so people can show up as their authentic selves. It is not just about being a part of the community, but about building trust and creating intentional connections that bring people together and honor the power and diversity of our community!